

TO: All ILR Members

FROM: ILR Office

RE: Coronavirus Class ADDED to 2020 Spring Schedule

Due to the diligent work of the ILR Curriculum Committee, we are adding a class on the Coronavirus to the 2020 Spring schedule, however, the final details of the class came together after the schedule was prepared. Please note that the class is being held in March and does not appear on the 2020 Spring Registration form.

** Registration information appears below the class/speaker information.

Wednesday, March 25, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., in the Pungo Auditorium (F-133), we will have a special “pop-up” class given by Dr. Shelley Mishoe on the timely subject: The Coronavirus.

Cost: $14.00 (standard class cost; make check payable to ILR)

Course Description: This course will describe the background on coronaviruses and how they have evolved over time. She will explain the history of virus outbreaks, explain the progress of the coronavirus, the transmission of the virus and how infection occurs, and the latest recommendations to take to prevent infection.

Speaker: Shelley C. Mishoe, PhD, RRT, FAARC

Dr. Shelley C. Mishoe has more than 40 years of academic and administration experience. She served as Dean of the College of Health Sciences at Old Dominion University from 2011-2017 and is currently a tenured professor in the ODU School of Community and Environmental Health, who is actively engaged in teaching and research. Dr. Mishoe has been studying virus outbreaks around the world. During the Zika virus outbreak, she co-authored a paper entitled, "Meet the New Virus: Same as the Old Virus".

She graduated with a PhD from the University of Georgia, a MEd in Education with a minor in Health Services from Augusta State University, Bachelor of Science and Associate Degrees in Respiratory Therapy from SUNY Upstate Medical University.

** Registration Details – 3 options:

Mail-In Registration: Add “Coronavirus” to Bottom of Registration Form, include payment, and mail. You may include your April & May registrations on the same form.

Online Registration: Use normal procedure. The class has been added to the 2020 Spring Quarter for online registration.

Walk-In: Bring $14 payment & include a note stating “March 25th Coronavirus class” in an envelope marked “ILR OFFICE”. You may give it to the Class Leader any time before the end of class. The Class Leader is the person who introduces the speaker. (If you did not register in advance, I recommend you call the office prior to coming, otherwise there is no way for you to receive information of any possible changes.