SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR WINTER 2024 – TCC & ZOOM

ILR does not discriminate with respect to race, color, sex, religion, or national origin.

The opinions expressed by our speakers are not necessarily the opinion of ILR or Tidewater Community College

PLEASE NOTE: COVID restrictions may have changed the availability of some Opportunities mentioned below.

The Institute of Learning in Retirement is a group of retirement age active seniors who are committed to life-long learning. Based at the Virginia Beach campus of Tidewater Community College, we enjoy intellectually stimulating lectures, discussion groups, social events, and trips. For a yearly membership fee, you will receive quarterly schedules of our activities. Classes, trips, discussion groups, and socials require registration and payment.

There are over 300 such college-sponsored institutes and centers in the U.S., and we are one of the largest in Virginia. Our ILR began in 1993 with 15 interested members, and has had as many as 900 active members from Virginia Beach and surrounding cities. We are housed at the Virginia Beach campus of Tidewater Community College and are in partnership with the Virginia Library system.

Membership

ILR membership is open to all who have reached retirement age without regard to race, religion, gender, color, or national origin. Volunteers interested in enriching their retirement years run the organization, with the help of one employee who sees to the business of operation.

What does it cost?

ILR members pay an annual membership fee of $25. The cost of each selected class is $15 per two-hour session. The ILR social, membership, and travel events are priced accordingly.

Programs

The schedule for classes and trips is offered by quarters (Jan-Mar, Apr-Jun, Jul-Sep, Oct-Dec). Members can register for programs as soon as the schedule is mailed or posted on the ILR website. (ilrvb.org > current forms & flyers)

Members register for the classes and activities that interest them. Topics are drawn from the arts, social issues, science and technology, history and world affairs, and health-related subjects. ILR also has special interest groups that organize as members express interest, such as Siteseers, who discuss international travel, the ILR Book Group, and Great Decisions. Call the office for contact information about these groups.

Our classes are usually two-hour presentations. Each calendar quarter, ILR offers 15 to 20 different classes planned by our Curriculum Committee. Classes meet Monday through Thursday in either the morning (10-12) or afternoon (1-3). Area college and university faculty teach many of our classes, but area experts and our members deliver others. All classes are taught on the TCC Virginia Beach Campus and/or Zoom unless otherwise specified. (See Registration form for Location details.) Specific room numbers are provided immediately prior to the class date.

Social and Travel Opportunities

Socializing is an important aspect of ILR. The Social Committee plans luncheons, visits to museums, and holiday events. The Membership Committee organizes periodic Lunch & Learn gatherings and New-Member Get-Togethers. The Travel Committee plans both day and overnight bus trips.

Dropping a Class vs Class Cancellation

If a member drops a class by phone or email at least 4 business-days in advance, during business hours (9:30-3:30p.m., M-F), the member may choose either a full-value account credit or a refund check minus a $2 administrative fee. For events, the refund will vary according to the individual event policy. (The $2 administrative fee also applies.) The member will receive a refund check.

If the ILR cancels a program, the member may choose a full refund or account credit.

TCC Closures and/or Inclement Weather

When TCC is closed or delayed, check your email for class status; it may be changed to Zoom Only instead of cancelled. Closing and Delay Information: Local radio and TV stations (3, 10 & 13); Notification on www.tcc.edu; Campus info center: (757) 822-1122; ILR Office Phone: 756-4861; ILR website: ilrvb.org.

Parking at TCC

Parking is free. For Pungo Building F DRIVE TO Parking Lot 1 (closest to Princess Anne Rd.) Map will be included with class notification emails. Parking info for other possible class locations will be provided as needed.

Dear ILR Members,

We are happy to continue offering classes both at the Tidewater Community College-Virginia Beach Campus and via Zoom. Please be aware of the following:

COVID Protocols: ILR will be following all CDC, State and TCC COVID protocols that are applicable at the time of the classes. We use the Pungo Building (F) Auditorium, (F-133) which is large enough to allow plenty of social distancing and TCC will do COVID-level cleaning between classes. Your health is our primary concern and we will provide email updates as they become available. Currently, mask use is optional.

Types of Class Presentations: ILR offers the following class presentation options, based on the speaker's availability. To determine how your chosen class will be presented, check the "Location" line of the class descriptions given in this schedule. Also, on the Registration form, the "Location" column will show either "TCC-Z", "TCC" or "Zoom Only". TCC classes held in F-133, Pungo Aud.

- ❖ TCC-Zoom: These classes will be offered in-person at TCC AND on Zoom simultaneously. The speaker will be at TCC. Zoom participants will be able to see the speaker's slides and hear the speaker. The speaker may walk away from the limited scope of the camera, so their face may not be visible all of the time. Questions may be asked through Zoom or in-person. The Zoom link will be sent to all who register. Each Member may decide which method of class attendance is preferred. You do not need to notify the office of your choice, simply plan to be either at TCC or at your computer before class begins.
- ❖ TCC: These classes will only be offered in-person on the TCC-VB campus.
- ❖ Zoom Only: These classes will only be offered via Zoom. Registered members will be sent a Zoom link to access the class.

Guest Policy: ILR waives the membership requirement for a particular person to attend an event with a member once per year. A member may invite multiple guests per year, but each may attend one event. The event fee must be paid.

The views, information, or opinions expressed during the class are solely those of the individuals involved and do not necessarily represent those of the Institute for Learning in Retirement or TCC. All videos, content and materials are the property of the speaker. Participants are prohibited from making, copying or distributing all or part of any audio or video recordings of programs.

Photography: The ILR reserves the right to take photographs or videos during the operation of any program or part thereof and to use them, whether taken by a representative of the ILR or by other participants, for promotional purposes. By enrolling in an ILR program, participants agree to allow their images to be used in such photography; participants who prefer that their images not be used are asked to identify themselves to program staff and the photographer at the commencement of their program.

Course Title: Ideas to Transform and Beautify your Lawn

Date and Time: Thursday, January 25, 2024, 10:00 - 12:00

Location: TCC Virginia Beach and Zoom

Course Description: Grass lawns have been the accepted ground cover for almost a century in the United States. However, grass lawns are harmful to the environment, pollute and waste water, diminish biodiversity, and cost a lot of unnecessary money. Thankfully, there are many alternatives for lawns that are both beautiful and ecologically beneficial. These will save water, money, and time, while encouraging visits by pollinators and birds. We will explore the history of grass lawns, why you should transform your lawn, and how to begin.

Speaker: Devani Jolman has a B.S. in Biology and is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Ecological Sciences focused on botanical research. She has served as a park interpreter and nature center naturalist, and presently serves as an educator at Norfolk Botanical Gardens and the Elizabeth River Trail. She also maintains membership in multiple botanical societies.

Location: ZOOM only

Course Description: We will celebrate the work of craft brewing, distilling, and fermenting, and the makers whose art fills your glass. From homebrewers to local distillers and wineries, alcohol makers have captured the soul and identity of Virginia with their intoxicating offerings. Explore how craft makers have used their talent and enthusiasm to connect with and represent the people, places, and history of the Commonwealth.

Speaker: Hailey Fenner is the Manager of Digital Learning at the Virginia Museum of History and Culture. Hailey is a graduate of Christopher Newport University. At VMHC, Hailey coordinates virtual field trips and webinars, produces virtual gallery walks and educational videos, and creates virtual exhibitions. She has been with the VMHC since 2014 and is excited to bring the stories of Virginia history to life!

Course Title: The DNA of the U.S. Constitution

Date and Time: Wednesday, February 7, 10:00 – 12:00

Location: TCC VB - Pungo Auditorium and ZOOM

Course Description: So many founders of the United States themselves saw slavery as ethnically bad—many even wrote and spoke of it—but other factors, particularly economic ones, resulted in their embracing it. The Constitution they created is our DNA. It has shaped us both in important and meaningful ways, but also in ways in which we have fallen short of our highest ideals, as in issues relating to race and gender. This lecture focuses on how the Constitution frames our understanding of reality, and on how we—as a country—continue to shape it.

Speaker: Eric W. Claville, J.D., M.L.I.S. is the Executive Advisor to the President for Government Relations at Norfolk State University. He has over two decades' experience in education, law, policy, and politics. He has taught courses in Public Policy, Constitutional Law & Civil Rights, and Law & the Judicial Process. His teaching philosophy is from a prism of analysis that includes history, politics, law & public policy, economics, and human behavior. He's an award-winning radio host and political and legal analyst. He also served as the first director of the Center for African American Public Policy (CAAPP) at NSU.

Course Title: Dr. Joseph Warren, Lost Hero of the Revolution

Date and Time: Thursday, February 8, 1:00 – 3:00.

Location: TCC VB - Pungo Auditorium and ZOOM

Course Description: Few Americans have ever heard of Dr. Joseph Warren, a true unsung hero. One rarely finds his name in American History textbooks, nor is he mentioned among our nation's "Founding Fathers." Who was he? Dr. Warren gave his life at the Battle of Breed's Hill (no battle was fought on Bunker Hill) as part of the Rear Guard, buying time for Colonials to escape during the final assault on June 17, 1775. He was later immortalized by Americans, especially in Massachusetts, to celebrate the upcoming 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

Speaker: Randy Flood is a historian and Co-founder of The Real American Revolution, a nonprofit organization established to educate citizens about the American Revolution. Professionally, Randy began his career by serving on the staff of the United States Senate and has taught courses about politics and the legislative processes at numerous colleges and universities in the Washington metropolitan area. Currently he resides in Williamsburg, Virginia, where he is working with the Washington Rochambeau Revolutionary Route Association to educate teachers, students, and communities about the national historic trail that Generals Washington and Rochambeau and their armies traveled to entrap Lord Cornwallis and his British Army at Yorktown.

Course Title: Barbie and What Feminism Got Wrong

Date and Time: Monday, February 12, 10:00 – 12:00

Location: TCC VB - Pungo Auditorium and ZOOM

Course Description: This talk will use the film Barbie as a framework for understanding how feminist ideals were misunderstood and misapplied in ways that created some of our contemporary social divisions. We will pay special attention to how feminists redefined femininity and masculinity, and how these definitions have expanded the horizons of women while leaving many young men without a positive sense of identity and social connection.

Speaker: Dr. Leslie Caughell is an Associate Professor of Political Science and Gender and Women's Studies at Virginia Wesleyan University where she teaches courses in American politics and political theory. Her research centers on demographic and environmental factors that shape political attitudes. She is the author of Politics in the Era of Fake News.

Course Title: Safety for Seniors

Date and Time: Tuesday, February 13, 10:00 – 12:00

Location: TCC VB - Pungo Auditorium and ZOOM

Course Description: Learning to protect ourselves and our families is of utmost importance. This lecture will introduce safety risks of which senior citizens need to be aware. Topics will include mail fraud, password protection, protection for your home, and protection for your person.

Speaker: Becky Mosbrucker is an NRA Instructor, USCCA Instructor, and CPR Instructor, and wears many other safety-related hats. Her heart's passion is to teach men and women the basics of safety so they can be aware of their surroundings and help protect their loved ones. She recognizes that many lives can be protected and saved with this important advice and training.

Course Title: The Many Surprising Pollinators Beyond Honey Bees*Date and Time: Thursday, February 15, 10:00 – 12:00Location: TCC VB - Pungo Auditorium and ZOOM

Course Description: This PowerPoint presentation focuses on different insect types and specific insects which pollinate, along with the plants they have evolved alongside, focusing mostly on native insects. We will also look at pollinating bee species other than honey bees.

Speaker: Michael Andruzyck began working as the Virginia Cooperative Extension Agent in Horticulture for Chesapeake in 2005 and was promoted to Senior Extension Agent in 2019. Prior to that, he worked at the Norfolk Botanical Garden as a Nursery/Greenhouse Supervisor, and lastly as Curator of the Plant Collection. He earned a master's in science degree in Public Horticulture Administration from the University of Delaware.

Course Title: Nuclear Power Development and Principles*Date and Time: Wednesday, February 21, 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.Location: TCC VB - Pungo Auditorium and ZOOM

Course Description: This presentation will cover nuclear power plant fundamentals and the development of nuclear power from theory to reality, from its beginnings in the U.S. Navy to a thriving commercial industry. Lessons learned from the Three Mile Island, Chernobyl, and Fukushima nuclear power plant disasters will also be discussed.

Speaker: Michael F. Cohen, C.P.C.M., C.F.C.M., P.E., is a 1971 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy with a B.S. in physics. He served in nuclear submarines. After leaving the Navy in 1976, he embarked on a career that included commercial nuclear power plants and 30 years at Newport News Shipbuilding in the design, construction, reactor testing, and contract management of nuclear submarines. Currently he is a Government Contracts Administrator with Bauer Compressors, Inc. in Norfolk. In 1995, while with Bauer, he developed and still teaches two nuclear engineering technology elective courses at ODU.

Course Title: Understanding and Living with Diabetes*Date and Time: Monday, February 26, 10:00 – 12:00Location: TCC VB - Pungo Auditorium and ZOOM

Course Description: Diabetes is a chronic, long-lasting health condition that affects how your body turns food into the energy you need. If your body doesn't make the insulin needed through diet, then your blood sugar remains in your body. This educational lecture will cover the diabetes basics using laymen's terms and analogies and treatments including medications, and how it may affect other diseases.

Speaker: Daniel J. Merki, M.D. is a family practitioner located in Virginia Beach. He has over 34 years of experience, and his top areas of expertise are Type 2 diabetes, infant hyperglycemia, and hypertension. He graduated from the University of Texas Health Sciences Center at San Antonio, Long School of Medicine in 1988.

Course Title: Virginia Shipwrecks*Date and Time: Tuesday, February 27, 10:00 – 12:00Location: TCC VB - Pungo Auditorium and ZOOM

Course Description: With approximately 3,315 miles of tidal coastline, Virginia has more shipwrecks than any other state in the continental United States. Using photographic images and detailed stories, we will recount how dozens of ships came to their final and sometimes tragic ends.

Speaker: Al Chewing grew up in Virginia Beach and spent countless hours fishing and sailing on the Chesapeake Bay. As a captain in the Virginia Beach Fire Department, he spent five years serving on the department's first fireboat. He was on the board of advisors of the Virginia Beach Maritime Historical Museum and is currently the president of the Princess Anne/Virginia Beach Historical Society. In addition to his newest book, Virginia Shipwrecks, Al has authored four other books about local history.

HOLIDAYS OF YORE

Join us in Olde Towne Portsmouth for a step back in time to celebrate this Holiday Season!

- First stop: The Hill House Museum, a historic home in Portsmouth, built circa 1825, furnished entirely with Hill family belongings from the 19th and 20th centuries. On this docent-led tour, we will also learn about family traditions for the Holidays.
- Second stop: Portsmouth Art & Cultural Center to see the automatons given to the city by the Portsmouth Coleman Plant Nursery when they closed doors in 2003. Many of us enjoyed visiting that Nursery to buy holiday decorations and have the intricate toys in full action amaze the child in us. There will be over 100 on display at the Art Center.
- Third and Final Stop: Walk half a block to the Bier Garden for delicious old world German cuisine. Separate checks. Our anticipated arrival time is 4:30 p.m. This will put us before their usual dinner crowd and get us out of there after rush hour for the drive home. We will be in time, though, to see Downtown Portsmouth decorated for the Holidays!

DATE: Thursday, December 14, 2023

TIMING AND PARKING:

- 2:10 p.m. arrival for 2:30 p.m. tour at the Hill House Museum, 221 North Street, Portsmouth, VA. Parking lot exclusively for the Museum is accessible on the left side of the building.
- Approximately 3:30 p.m. we will leave the Hill House and drive a few short blocks to the Middle Street Garage, 441 Middle St. for $1.25 per hour (pay as leave unless exit gate is open). We will then walk 2 short blocks to the Portsmouth Arts & Cultural Center, corner of High and Court Streets, and afterwards to dinner.

PRICE: $12 pp. covers entry fees and donations for both museums and ILR administrative fee. Dinner at Bier Garden will be separate checks.

DEADLINE FOR REGISTRATION: Friday, December 1, 2023 - No refunds after deadline date. If you would like to participate but do not feel comfortable driving through the Downtown tunnel, contact Susan Clarke to discuss carpool options. # 757-395-9394.

TOUR THE GREAT DISMAL SWAMP WITH ILR

George Washington visited in 1763 and called the Dismal Swamp a “paradise abounding in fowl and game!” Join us on this comfortable bus for a tour with expert guide, Allen Carter (certified arborist, horticulturalist and Virginia Master Naturalist) as he leads us on this tour, primarily concentrating on vegetation and wildlife in the swamp, but also touching on some major events of historical importance.

DATE AND TIME OF TOUR: Friday, April 12, 2024 Report at 8:40 a.m. to load the bus. The bus pulls out at 9:00 a.m. and returns at 2 p.m.

DEADLINE FOR REGISTRATION: Friday, December 15, 2023. No refund after deadline since ILR will be paying for trip at that time in order to secure the arrangement.

RAIN DATE FOR TOUR: Friday, April 26, 2024

TRANSPORTATION: We will travel from the REI store, 350 Independence Blvd., Virginia Beach onboard a comfortable 16 seat private bus. There is ample parking available there for your car. From REI, it takes approximately an hour to get to the Dismal Swamp. Allen Carter will be onboard to help prepare us for what we are about to see.

CONDITIONS:

- The bus will go light rain or shine. The Nature Bus makes the call on whether rain is “light.” If they determine that rain is too heavy, you will be notified by phone that morning.
- Be certain before signing up that both dates work for you!
- No eating or drinking on the bus. Snacks that fit in the pocket can be eaten outside.
- Bring something for lunch that could fit in a small sandwich paper bag and you can store it in the bus cooler. Larger items cannot be placed in that cooler.
- The bus does not have storage space for wheelchairs or walkers. No heavy walking but we will walk on a couple of boardwalk trails.
- Wear long pants, tucking the cuffs in light colored knee highs and wear closed toe shoes.
- Bring bug spray
- There will be several pit-stops along the way
- Bring a beverage in a bottle that can be refilled. The bus will have a large jug of water.
- And a highlight will be enjoying lunch on an observation deck overlooking beautiful Lake Drummond, Virginia’s only natural lake! Picnic chairs provided.

COST: $55 per person, includes bus trip, tip for the guide and ILR admin. fee.

MAXIMUM: 16 people. If there is enough interest to fill another bus, we will consider contracting for an additional date.

Evita Tickets    Virginia Musical Theatre

Join fellow ILR members to watch Evita. It is based on the historical story of María Eva Duarte de Perón, a poor Argentinian girl who grows up to be the wife of the president of Argentina and worshipped by her people.

ILR WHALE WATCHING TRIP

ARE WHALES ENDANGERED? At the top of the food chain, whales are vital to the health of the marine environment but 7 out of 13 great whale species are endangered or vulnerable. Today, due to human whaling activities, irresponsible fishing gear disposal and overall aquatic ecosystem deterioration, only 10 percent of their population has survived.

See these magnificent animals first hand on a whale watching tour departing from Rudee Inlet on Friday, January 12, 2024. Normal winter sightings off Virginia Beach are usually limited to the majestic Humpback whales!

DATE: Friday, January 12, 2024 (Registration Deadline: Friday January 5, 2024)

NO REFUNDS: AFTER January 5, 2024

COST: $33.00 per person

TIME & LOCATION: Arrive at 12:00 p.m.

RUDEE TOURS, 200 WINSTON SALEM AVE., Virginia Beach

Board at 12:30pm, Depart at 1:00pm, Return at 3:00pm

DETAILS: Bring cash or credit card for food and drinks. There is a full bar and food service inside the heated observation room. This includes beer, wine, mixed drinks, water and soda. The food menu includes hot dogs, hamburgers, chicken sandwiches, nachos, popcorn and candy.

Bring binoculars and cameras with powerful zooms, sunglasses and sunscreen. If you are prone to getting seasick, take your meds before the ship leaves the dock. Dress in warm layers for the outdoor observation decks, a good jacket, hats and gloves. Indoor restrooms are available. Cancellation due to rough seas may occur...usual notification is a day ahead of time. If this occurs, we will attempt to reschedule at a later date.

WINTER 2024 CLASS REGISTRATION

Membership Renewal and Registration are available by mail & online at www.ilrvb.org.

*See Location Column to determine if class is available via “TCC-Z”, “Zoom Only”, or “TCC Only” See Schedule, Page 2, for “Location” details. ILR uses the Pungo Building Auditorium (F133) for all classes.

Guest Policy: ILR waives the membership requirement for a particular person to attend an event with a member once per year. A member may invite multiple guests per year, but each may attend one event. The event fee must be paid.

Drop Class Policy: 4 business-days’ notice is required. See schedule cover page for details.

Photography: The ILR reserves the right to take photographs or videos during the operation of any program or part thereof and to use them, whether taken by a representative of the ILR or by other participants, for promotional purposes. By enrolling in an ILR program, participants agree to allow their images to be used in such photography. Participants who prefer that their images not be used are asked to identify themselves to program staff and the photographer at the commencement of their program.
