

ILR

Institute for Learning in Retirement office@ilrvb.org 757-756-4861

Everything that happens at ILR is a result of volunteers. Below are listed the standing committees. Please let us know if you are willing to help.

_____ Communications & Technology - promotes communication via website management and technology support to office staff and committees.

_____ Curriculum - plans and hosts approximately 80 two-hour classes per year and prepares course descriptions and speaker biographies for the quarterly mailings.

_____ Membership - oversees seasonal events such as the New Member Get-Togethers and quarterly Lunch & Learn.

_____ Nominating - recruits a slate of officers for the election held at the annual meeting.

_____ Publicity - responsible for advertising and projecting ILR into the surrounding communities.

_____ Social - plans the Annual Luncheon Meeting, as well as several social gatherings at member homes, local restaurants, and local cultural attractions.

_____ Travel - plans day visits and over-night bus trips to area attractions.

_____ Volunteer - keeps a pool of names of people willing to help with mailings, office tasks, the annual art show, and any other function that needs an extra pair of hands.

If you are willing to help with any Committee, please note above and submit the following information.
